

Notes	Requirements	Comments and Resources
	1. Contribute to the World Friendship Fund (National) or the World Scouting Contributions (SHAC) through your unit and learn how this money is used to help Scouts in other parts of the world (There is no minimum contribution)	All money collected should be submitted to the Council Service Center
	2. Earn the World Conservation Award for Boy Scouts (at anytime since becoming a registered Boy Scout)	The Boy Scout Handbook p. 411
	3. Learn what each of the parts of the World Crest mean and share this knowledge with a group of Cub Scouts or Webelos.
	4. Find out about Scouting in another country: What age levels do they have? What does their badge look like? What is their Promise? What is their highest rank? Make a display to share what you learned with others.
	5. Learn about the World Organization of Scouting Movement (WOSM). Make a display to share of what you learned with others
	6. Host an individual or group of foreign students at a dinner, a meeting or a campout weekend where activities are planned so that you may learn about their country.	Prepare a list of questions in advance. Be sure every member has an opportunity to ask at least one question.
	7. With a group of Cub Scouts, Webelos or Boy Scouts, help plan and execute an international dinner or participate in an activity involving games from different countries.	If this is done at the troop level, each patrol might design their tables to represent different countries. Decorations could include the nation's flag & map. Samples of the countries food and songs could be a part of the program.
	8. Participate in an International Scout Jamboree/ Camporee (either in the US or another country) or other international Scout event. Share your experiences with another Scout unit.	http://www.samhoustonbsa.org http://www.scouting.org/international
	9. Host a Scout or a group of Scouts from another country who are living or are on a tour of the area or are guests of your Unit for a camping experience.	http://www.samhoustonbsa.org
	10. As an individual or with other members of your troop take a trip to another country, including a visit to one of their activities and take part in a short term camp or visit.	Individuals or groups traveling abroad should apply for the "International Letter of Introduction" from the BSA International Division. Applications are available from the Council Service Center.
	11. Participate in Jamboree-on-the Air. Share your experience with Cub Scouts, Webelos Scouts or another Scout patrol or troop	http://www.scout.org/jota http://www.samhoustonbsa.org
	12. Find out about the Baden Powell House, Gilwell Park, Brown Sea Island, and Kandersteg International Scout Centre. Make a display to share what you learned with others	http://www.scoutbase.org.uk –BP House, Gilwell, Brown Sea Island http://www.kisc.ch – Kandersteg, Switzerland
	13. Complete one year of foreign language or earn the Interpreter Strip.
	14. Attend a Scout meeting or district or council event in a foreign country. (Different than for items 8 & 10)
	15. Participate in a pen pal program with a Scout in another country. Share your experience with your patrol and troop.	Check with your International Representative on how to proceed.

National Tour Permits are required for all unit visits outside the UNITED STATES!